

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am very pleased to confirm Fred Rahi's tenure of internship. As Fashion assistant of GQ Australia, I had the pleasure of overseeing Fred during his time with us as a fashion intern, from October 2019 until February 2020.

As a member of the fashion department, Fred was responsible for providing styling assistance during studio, location and still-life photography shoots, conducting concept research, meticulously checking in and returning products, compiling clothing credits and helping to organise the fashion closet.

Fred was a punctual, friendly and reliable member of the GQ team, making him a joy to have in the office.

Yours sincerely,

Harriet Crawford
Fashion Assistant, GQ Australia
